

Dr. A.K. Sinha,
Principal Chief Personnel Officer,
Central Railway

Dr. A.K. Sinha, an officer of the Indian Railway Personnel Service 1986 Batch, has taken over charge of Principal Chief Personnel Officer (PCPO), Central Railway, Mumbai. He is an alumnus of Patna University with a Doctorate (PhD) in Animal Science. He has also done Masters in Science and LL.B. He did his MBA (Master in Business Administration) specialising in Human resource & Diploma in Marketing & Finance from IGNOU, New Delhi. He has undergone one year Operational Management course in Rail Roads from GERMANY. He also undergone training HEC / Paris, South Africa, Singapore, Malaysia etc

Prior to this, he was Divisional Railway Manager, Nanded , South Central Railway. His career in Railways spanning a period of 31 years. His previous stints include working in various capacities in other railways, viz Eastern, ECR, Workshop CLW etc. He is keen in implementing IT based technological applications in Personnel department for better performance. He is further keen on innovating & modernizing HR functions in Railway.

....